DEMOS BUSY IN NORTH SM COUNTY

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

Local Doc, L. J. RICHARDS, 6387 Mission street, knows now what it feels like to be numbered among the "invalid."

While skiing at Edelweiss and minding his own business last weekend he was caught broadside by a snow bunny shishing down the slopes.

The party of the first part in the accident suffered nary a scratch. But the local physician suffered a cracked rib.

Course this item'll probably fracture him, too.

Then, for an interesting and equally dangerous vocation, take the Daly City man who toils on the Bay Bridge as a painter days, working sundry hundreds feet over the bay with nothing to stand on but three layers of industrial enamel. . . . He takes the load off his feet at night acting as manager for a local theater.

The derby with the feather on top is still making the garbage run.

DC residents used to be bemused at derby hat and antics of SALVATORE BALBI, former owner of the local scavenger company, who made the morning refuse calls.

Sal's out of the profession now, but the derby has been recalled to active duty.

It now adorns the noggin of JOE DELFINO, one of eight partners in the business.

He wears it on his morning rounds, donning something a little more formal for afternoon wear.

Begorrah, it took a whale of convincing, but Irish war-bride VERA GLICK is in the process of applying for U. S. citizenship.

Vera, who lives with husband, LESTER, and daughter, DIETHELM, at 167 East Vista avenue, was brought home from the wars nine years ago, coming from County Clare in South Ireland.

Like any good colleen, full of hell 'n' rebellion, she waited a while to look the situation over, but now she's going to be a U. S. citizen.

"It's mighty pleased we're bein', lassie."

Things that go in streaks department: MR. and MRS. E. D. MASON, 460 Santa Barbara avenue, have upped and done it again—boy No. 3, born January 17, Mary's Helo hospital, checking in at 9 lbs. 5 oz. by the name of RUSSELL EDWARD. The couple already have two sons, JIMMY, 7, and STEPHEN, 3.

Must be something in their background. Mr. M. was in a family of four boys, one girl, while the Mrs. was one of three girls.

They can't seem to strike a happy medium.

You won't miss out on any scholarship to Yale or fail a civil service exam if you don't read this next item, but did you know that the DC chief of police's initials are RAP?

A jovial prisoner might be heard to say, "I'm doing time for a RAP." Then, again, he probably wouldn't.

Hey! Will one of you printers throw a column rule under this stuff so I can end it here before it gets worse?

HASKINS FOUND GUILTY ON DC NUISANCE COUNT

Judge Fines Property Owner; On Probation

Arthur Haskins, Daly City property owner, had the boom lowered on him in court Tuesday for leaving his land "littered with garbage and refuse."

Complaint was brought against Haskins by health deputy Fred Collins, who said Haskins' property at 6951 Mission street was in violation of a city ordinance setting up standards for cleanliness.

City Attorney Frank Blum, representing Daly City, told Muni Court Judge Thomas L. Bocci that Haskins had "long ago been served a notice to abate the nuisance."

Bocci concurred that the complaint was justified, found Haskins guilty and sentenced him to five days in the county jail, suspended on condition he pay a $20 fine.

Haskins was also placed on six months probation by the court.

Thieves Get $375 From Local Store

Burglars lifted nearly $375 from a local grocery store Saturday after thoroughly ransacking a store room to find the money.

Bernard Janssen, 183 Miriam street, noticed the store, Budget Savings, 6001 Mission street, had been entered when he arrived Saturday morning at 7:45 a.m. to open up.

Janssen said he observed the garage door in the rear store room had been opened. Police said the thieves entered by forcing open the door on the north side of the building.

After ransacking the store room, the culprits found a box containing $305.75 hidden in a stack of brown paper bags.

They then entered the meat department and found the cash drawer in the walk-in ice box.

They lifted $60 from the drawer leaving the silver.

Police said later they had over-looked an additional cash drawer and a box containing an undisclosed amount of money.

FIND WESTLAKE MAN GUILTY OF ASSAULT

Joseph Gaidzik, 10 Forest Grove drive, was found guilty Tuesday in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court on charges of assault and battery.

Bocci meted out a 30 day jail sentence for Gaidzik, which was suspended on condition he pay a $100 fine.

The sifting process began in local politics this week as the North End Democratic club began casting about for a worthy opponent to face 25th district state assemblyman Daniel J. Creedon in the June primaries.

Meeting at the Broadmoor community center, the demos named five potential candidates to vie against the incumbent.

Those selected were Tom Jenkins, Jim McKay and Howard Richardson of Broadmoor, Peter J. Markovich of Daly City, and Carl Jones, San Bruno.

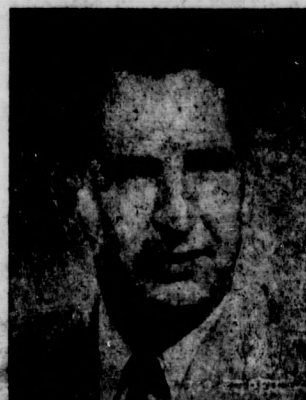

Markovich ran unopposed two years ago against Creedon, gaining 9600 votes in the primary, while Jenkins, carrying the endorsement of the county democratic committee, swung 4025.

Creedon won by a 23,000 landslide.

The other three have never run for a state office.

Figuring on the basis that one strong candidate is better than two weak ones, these five are expected to come to a gentleman's agreement, following choice of the San Mateo county convention meeting February 20.

It is believed the five will meet prior to the convention to make a pact that the four not chosen will back the county group's choice, and announce formally that they will not be candidates.

At this writing, Markovich seems to have the inside track, because of his showing in the primaries two years ago.

Markovich, a local insurance agent, is active in community activities and a native of Daly City.

Jenkins is a practicing attorney, while McKay, a tax auditor, also has a legal background. Richardson is an insurance broker and Jones is international representative of the CIO steel workers union, which may help swing some weight his way.

At their recent meeting, the North End demos asked present officers to continue in their capacity until April, when regular election of officers will be held.

The demos are planning a de-

YOUTH HIT BY CAR IMPROVED BUT STILL UNCONSCIOUS HOSPITAL SAYS

"Still unconscious, but slightly improved," was the report yesterday from Franklin Hospital on a 15-year-old Jefferson High school student who was struck by an auto at the Alemany-Lake Merced-Lynnwood intersection near Westlake Friday.

Daryl Olsen Hall, Jefferson High school student who lives at 170 Los Olivos avenue, was riding his bicycle east on Alemany Friday afternoon when hit by a vehicle driven by Donald F. Wilson, 19, of 41 Crestwood drive, a Jefferson graduate.

Attendants at the hospital said yesterday that Hall was "improved" but still on the critical list. It is believed he suffered brain injuries in the accident. Earlier, physicians had said an operation would be necessary but no surgery can be attempted until the youngster regains consciousness.

According to police, Wilson was west-bound on Alemany boulevard and had started to make a left turn onto Lynnwood drive when he hit Hall's bicycle, throwing the boy to the highway.

Hall was rushed immediately to Junipero Serra hospital and later transferred to Franklin. The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Olsen.

Later Hall was cited for failing to change his address on his registration.

The incident was the latest in a tragic series over the past few years at the infamous intersection.

Just a day before the accident, the state highway commission announced that they had allocated $87,000 in the state budget for installation of three-way traffic signals at the intersection.

Total cost of the signals will be $107,000, of which the city of Daly City will pay $20,000.

The district office of the division of highways said yesterday that bids for the project would probably be called for on February 8 and contract would be let shortly after the first of March.

If these plans are carried out, installation of the signals should begin about the end of March.

MOTHERS MARCH FOR DIMES THIS THURSDAY NITE

Shining porch lights will mean a shine in the eyes of many young polio victims when the Mothers March of dimes is held Thursday evening from 7 to 8 p.m.

Workers will stop for donations at homes where porch lights are burning.

Mrs. Sanford Vickers, general chairman, said if by chance residents are not contacted and still wish to give to the worthy cause, they may mail their contribution to her at 155 Abbot street.

Persons who live in apartments have been asked to tie something to their door knob to indicate they wish to donate.

DC Cancer Victim Dies In Own Auto

A 73-year-old Daly City man who had been suffering from cancer ended his own life Thursday by sealing himself in his car and inhaling carbon monoxide fumes.

Police said the man, George James Day, 736 Niantic avenue, sent his wife over to a neighbor's house Thursday at 1 p.m. telling her he wanted to take a nap.

When Mrs. Day returned at 1:40 p.m. with Frank Kadlec, a son-in-law, they heard a car running in the basement. On investigation they found Day lying on the seat.

A physician was summoned and pronounced Day dead.

SPOUSE OF ATTEMPTED SUICIDE DIES IN HOME

A Daly City man whose wife only Thursday had made an attempt on her life died yesterday at his home, 80 Forrest Grove drive, apparently of a heart seizure.

Willis S. Wells, 62, was reported dead yesterday morning, exactly a week after his wife had shot herself in an unsuccessful suicide attempt.

In addition to his wife, Doris, Wells is survived by a son, Willis Wells Jr., of San Francisco. Masonic services will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at the chapel of Julius Godeau, 41 Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, following which military graveside services will be held at Golden Gate National cemetery.

His widow was able to move around comfortably yesterday after firing the shot into her breast Thursday in the apparent suicide attempt.

Hospital attendants at Letterman General hospital said Mrs. Doris Wells, 44, of 80 Forrest Grove drive, apt. 8, was "doing fine" and was up and around yesterday. They said the wound was superficial.

Daly City police were summoned to Mrs. Wells apartment Friday night near midnight by her husband, who said she had shot herself.

Mrs. Wells told Van Otten that she was "tired of living."

The woman said later that she shot herself while her husband was sleeping. Wells said she was despondent because of his poor health. He told Van Otten that he "was going blind."

These facts should be forwarded to the Bureau of the Census, City Hall, Daly City.

The old bleachers will be replaced with the steel deck type. About eleven hundred seats will be provided on the west side. These Efforts to establish Thornton beach as a Daly City recreational area were renewed at the city council meeting Monday night by Arthur Bodien, retired water department superintendent.

Bodien, speaking from the audience, inquired of the council why the play to lease the 20-acres of beachland had been dropped. Bodien has campaigned for Daly City use of the area for more than a year.

The retired city employee pointed out that a 50-year lease could be obtained, at a rate of $1 a year, with option for another 50 years when that was up.

Bodien explained that at present the county owns the beach area extending from the army camp on the north to the beach access road on the south. "The county has too much beach land to maintain, and is planning to turn a portion of it over to the state," he said.

"I'd like to see this area developed by Daly City rather than the state," he continued.

He said concessions could be established and the beach could be turned into an area for camping, fishing, and family outings. "The city might even realize some revenue from the park," he added.

Councilman Paul Green said the matter had been held up because he "wanted to find out what the county planning commission felt on the matter."

Bodien countered by explaining the commission had met more than a year ago with the express purpose of discussing the beach area, but Green, who was then mayor, had failed to show up.

"Two years ago we had a chance to lease the beach for $1 a year," Bodien said.

"I think the council should definitely start looking into this matter," Bodien said.

ANNEXATION IN BROADMOOR GETS SOUND APPROVAL

By a firm majority of 370 to 69, voters of the Broadmoor and unincorporated Colma areas Thursday approved the annexation of the unincorporated property into the police district.

Total votes cast, 439, was slightly more than anticipated.

The Broadmoor police district now has the same boundaries as the Colma fire district.

Approval of the measure will give the police district another $13,000 in tax moneys yearly.

Taxes for the Sterling tract and Colma area will be raised approximately 50 cents a month per homeowner, according to Joe Belli, police commissioner.

Meanwhile, Broadmoor taxpayers can look forward to a 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation cut in their annual taxes.

The move was brought about to provide protection for the annexed areas and to broaden the tax base, making possible maintenance.

Runnell, will be presented in the band and orchestra along with more than 2100 selected northern California and Nevada high school musicians who will round-up in Stockton on Saturday, February 6, for the fourth annual College of the Pacific mid-winter music clinics.

The high school chorus, under Eunice Seaton's direction, will also participate.

The concert material is prepared by each school group locally, and then is polished up during section, group and ensemble rehearsals. The selected students are directed in the clinic sessions by a corps of music educators and three outstanding guest directors who will conduct the festival concert.

Kurt Herbert Adler, San Francisco opera and symphony conductor, will head the all-string orchestra, first organization of its kind in the clinic series. The big band will be guided by Pattee Evenson of San Diego and the chorus by Robert Wagner of Los Angeles.

UTILITIES HEARING MONDAY ON ABANDONMENT OF BUSES

The San Francisco board of supervisors held off this week on formal abandonment of the two bus lines serving Daly City-Colma areas and called for a public hearing on the matter Monday in the city hall at 2 p.m.

City and muni officials met yesterday for a lengthy talkathon, and upshot of the meet was that San Mateo county subsidization of the red-link buses appeared the only solution.

County Sups There

Attending yesterday's meeting were Jack Kendree, representing the Chamber of Commerce transportation committee and the Doelger firm, City Administrator Dan Andersen, Jack Baker, Broadmoor Property Owners' association, Martin Poss, chairman of the San Mateo county board of supervisors, County Supervisor Ed McDonald and County Manager Robert Stallings.

Sundry questions were tossed at the San Francisco supervisors, mostly concerned with "What do we do now?"

The Muni seeks to abandon the No. 56 (Cemeteries) line, which reportedly lost $13,199 last year, and the No. 76, which serves Westlake and Broadmoor, a loser last year to the tune of $32,795, the Muni says.

One suggestion was that a 10-cent fare be charged on the No. 56, which is now a transfer bus. This would mean an additional revenue to the muni of $46,500 annually, according to Administrator Andersen.

"Perhaps they could figure the two lines as one operation. With the extra revenue the local lines would break about even," Andersen pointed out.

Andersen said the cemeteries association will probably have something to say about abandonment of the No. 56.

"We're primarily concerned with the No. 76," Andersen explained, "since that run serves the most people. We've asked the Muni not to abandon that line until there has been time to negotiate."

Representatives of the railway present at yesterday's meeting included: Charles Miller, Marmion Mills, Vernon Anderson and George Quinn.

Turner Chimes In At last Thursday's Chamber of Commerce session utilities executive James Turner appeared before the group to explain the reason for the abandonment.

At that time he also expressed the idea that subsidization of the losing lines was the only answer. A Chamber of Commerce "rebuttal" that was scheduled to be read at the luncheon gathering failed to materialize.

Butte county had 2680 farms in 1950, according to the Census of Agriculture of that year.

nance of a large police department.

The Broadmoor police commission, in anticipation of favorable election results, last week put on four policemen on a 24-hour basis. Previously no protection was offered the Broadmoor area from 3 a.m. until later in the morning.

The commission is scheduled to meet later this week to discuss bids for purchase of a police vehicle.

Results by precinct showed: Firehouse, 120 yes, 36 no; Garden Village school, 142 yes, 18 no; and police station, 108 yes, 15 no.

Nothing makes the finish of a car last longer or look better than keeping it clean. This means washing it when it gets dirty and using a cleaner about twice a year to remove oxidized paint, advises the California State Automobile Association. After a cleaner has been used, of course, the finish should be waxed. With such attention the original paint on an automobile will last for many years.

String Of Fire Goes Down Daly City Street

A string of fire more than 50 feet in length streamed down Rice street yesterday morning after a can of primer had been ignited.

According to firemen, Harold Kilber, 27 Rice street, was attempting to prime his carburetor at 8 a.m. when the fluid caught fire. He threw the container to the sidewalk where the burning liquid strated a stream of fire down the gutter and across the street.

No damage was reported.

THOSE WHO WILL BE COUNTED

With municipal elections drawing ever close, we feel it time again to attempt a prod in the groin of the local citizens.

It's time for the taxpayers who foot the city's annual bill of $700,000.00 to get wise to the fact that they're part of this organization we call the "City."

Daly City has long established itself as one of the most lethargic communities on the face of God's earth when it comes to municipal affairs.

Attendance at council meetings, over the past year, for instance, has averaged about eight persons.

These eight, whose noise bears some weight, along with a council of five, that makes 13, constitute the board of directors of a corporation that includes some 25,000 persons and spends $700,000 yearly.

Now we ask you, is that an equitable representation?

If attendance at public council meetings is any indication, interest in the coming city election will be about as hot as yesterday morning's fried egg.

We maintain that a community will not, and can not, achieve the highest type of government when members of the community consistently take the "don't-give-a-damn" attitude.

Why should the public officials scurry around like extrovert beavers when nobody knows what they're doing, and wouldn't give a hoot if they did it, anyway.

Representatives of the city have to have something to shoot for and, at the same time, must have a sizeable audience to which they are responsible.

Until the time when Daly City residents start getting off their hindquarters and taking at least a fractional part in city government, the municipal activities will continue to be dictated by a minority of a dozen.

The election's in April. Those who will be counted stand now and show yourselves.

MANY GRIEVE EMILE LOHR DEMISE

The many Daly City area friends of Mrs. Emile Lohr were grieved to learn this week of her recent death in Richmond, Virginia.

Mrs. Lohr was the school nurse in Daly City and Colma from 1923 to 1945. She endeared herself to all the teachers with whom she worked, to the children of the schools, as well as their families, many of whom she aided and befriended when they were in unfortunate circumstances.

In addition to being nurse, she was truant officer and social worker and worked untiringly for the children and the community.

She was first to bring milk to the youngsters in the schools, using the profit from this to start a dental clinic, which flourished for a number of years. She also started a "Well Baby Clinic." She was alert to the needs of under-nourished children and took many of them to the Preventorium.

When the children were tested for defective vision, she saw to it that those with poor eyesight received glasses at a price as cheap as possible.

Emile Lohr was a Red Cross nurse and served two years overseas with the organization in World War I. Her many friends in Daly City and Colma truly regret her passing.

Mrs. Lohr's burial was fitting, as she was given military honors and laid to rest beside her mother in beautiful Thornrose cemetery in Stanton, Virginia.

Daly City Resident Takes A Pot Shot At "Antiquated" Local Garbage Service

Gentlemen:
Enclosed please find money order for $1 to cover subscription for Jan., Feb., March, 1954.

I'd like to take this opportunity to ask why a city the size of ours does not have an adequate system for the disposal of Christmas trees.

It's a disgrace to find discarded trees all over the public playgrounds simply because the garbage men refuse to pick them up. That's a little short of ridiculous.

I called the garbage company and was told a notice appeared in THE RECORD and Shopping News to the effect that the trees should be cut up. NO OTHER NOTICE!

In my care I receive the Shopping News only when the children in the neighborhood haven't removed it from the doorway before I get home in the evening. As a result I missed this notice of great importance to me because it meant bringing the tree back through the house again. (I have not other way of disposing of it except by the garbage man. Surely when you figure the number of families who have facilities for burning them, the number left couldn't be so great that the garbage company would find them too much to handle.

What must the new residents of our city think of the antiquated service we are having handed to us?

Sincerely,
V. Frates,
46 Peoria street.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

The past week has been mighty grim. Confined to bed by a virus which had set up housekeeping in my inner ear I wasn't really ill, even though my eyesight was blurred and my sense of equilibrium persisted in leading me toward the right in short staggers when I tried to walk. Nor did I have time to be sick, not with January 28 set for departure to Chicago. As day followed day with no noticeable improvement my worry increased to anxiety and the anxiety became desperation. Not that we look upon Chicago with misty nostalgic eyes, it is the train that would get us there that we could not bear to part with.

Long long ago we heard a train wail in the night, heard the click of its wheels as it rocked us to sleep and part of our heart was lost forever. This love has lasted all our life and encompasses all trains, from the mighty Mallets gradually being replaced by the more prosaic Diesels, to the C. C. Huntington whom we never fail to visit when in Sacramento and whom, for some reason not entirely clear even to us, we invariably address as "Old MacPhearson."

Yet each year for seven years we have watched our heart board a train alone for the East, and each year for seven years we have welcomed its return, waved to the engineer and as we surreptitiously patted the engine, promised it that "next year" we would go. This is the year and to think that between us and our beloved train stood a virus!

Well, no virus is going to stop us! We still can't quite focus and we are inclined to drift to the right at unexpected moments, nonetheless 9:30 Thursday morning we are going to keep our long delayed date with the Western Pacific's Zephyr. Should you be free, come to see us off. We will be easy to find—someone in a black and white tweed suit, carrying a large hatbox and patting each beautiful Pullman. There will be a lot of cars to pat as we're in the very last one. Come and rejoice with us as we hear those magic words: "ALL ABOARD!"

County's Total Of Federal Budget Is Set At $148,730,000

For the 304,400 people in San Mateo county, the $65,600,000 federal budget proposed by President Eisenhower for fiscal 1954-55 will cost about $148,730,000, California Taxpayers' association estimated today.

For the 12,244,290 people in California, the President's budget recommendation to congress will cost about $5,982,720,000 in taxes of one kind or another—if the budget is approved by congress as submitted.

"Congressional 'work-over' of the budget proposal is to be expected," the association said.

"Action by congress in the 1953 session cut federal appropriation proposals by some $13,000,000,000. "Careful pruning of the 1954-55 budget proposal should again result in reductions.

"Any reduction will mean a lessening of the tax bill which Californians will have to pay," the association said, pointing out that: "The people of California bear more than 9 per cent of the federal tax burden—although they are but 7.6 per cent of the nation's population. Because of this, per capita cost for Californians of the Eisenhower budget proposal is $488, compared with the $408 nationwide average."

The purpose of the contest is to help cities in their pedestrian accident-prevention activities and to give deserved recognition to those communities and officials that successfully promote such safety programs.

Cities entering the contest incur no obligations and are judged on their reduction of pedestrian accidents and also on their educational and enforcement programs to increase pedestrian safety in their communities. Conducting the program in this city is R. C. Petrocchi, Chief of Police.

The city of Daly City has received the award for two consecutive years, and is in line for further honors this year, Petrocchi said.

The city may gain further accolades if the census reveals population here to be 25,000. This would place Daly City in a higher bracket in the nation-wide competition.

Tentative plans are being made for another faculty dinner scheduled for the month of February.

Mr. Hough's Class Room 1, p.m., 8th Grade

In mathematics we are studying percentage. Two examples are: finding the whole number from a per cent and finding a number from its fractional part. In social studies we have been studying about the administrations from the time of Washington to the time of Jackson. We intend to write about famous people about whom we have read. We will include such famous people as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, and many others. Each student will make a written report on the person of his choice.

Mr. Tergis' Class and Mr. Sobol's Class Room 1, a.m., 7th Grade

Our class is now studying ancient and modern Greece; we will soon be studying Italy. We have read about the Trojan war, the Acropolis and the famous men of those days. We have also seen pictures about Israel.

In art we are learning about two point perspective from Mrs. Burr. Our class is reading a new book called "Growing Up." It is interesting to us because it is made especially for those in the seventh grade.

We have just seen two movies entitled "Water, the Fountain of Life" and "Volley Ball."

—Claudia Williams

Miss Bremmer's Class Room 2, p.m., 7th Grade

In Social Studies we are studying Italy and other Mediterranean countries. Some of the people brought things for our bulletin board. We had maps and travel folders on it. I brought some Italian stamps.

Maria Bocci brought some pictures of things that her father took when he was in Italy a few years ago. We made some puzzles about Italy. Almost everyone got them right. We had fun doing them.

Miss Marvick's Class Room 2, p.m., 8th Grade

Miss Marvick's 8th grade Social Studies class is completing its projects concerning business in Daly City and in San Francisco. The groups are composed of two or three students.

Some of the projects are: How Daly City was First Established, The Community Center, and The PG&E Sub-Station.

Daly City Submits Entry In Sixteenth Pedestrian Contest

The city of Daly City has submitted an entry in the sixteenth annual nationwide Pedestrian Protection Contest conducted by the American Automobile Association and sponsored locally by the California State Automobile Association. Mayor Anthony Gaggero announced today.

The purpose of the contest is to help cities in their pedestrian accident-prevention activities and to give deserved recognition to those communities and officials that successfully promote such safety programs.

Cities entering the contest incur no obligations and are judged on their reduction of pedestrian accidents and also on their educational and enforcement programs to increase pedestrian safety in their communities. Conducting the program in this city is R. C. Petrocchi, Chief of Police.

The city of Daly City has received the award for two consecutive years, and is in line for further honors this year, Petrocchi said.

Your Neighbors And Mine

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Here it is the last week in January already. Seems like Christmas was just here and now we are ready for February and Valentine's Day. When one is very young time seems to go so slowly but now—Could it be we aren't so young anymore? Anyway the news keeps going on so here it is for this week.

The big event in town will take place tomorrow night. Place—Community Center, Event—the March of Dimes Dance sponsored by the VFW Post and Auxiliary No. 2044. The purpose behind this event is to help fill the quota for the Polio Fund of San Mateo County. The music will be good and of course there will be refreshments of all kinds. For a good time and a good cause, come to the dance tomorrow night, Jan. 30th.

MRS. R. O. "BABE" DUFFY, a long time resident of our town who recently left us for San Mateo, was heard from last week. Babe has been quite ill. Right after the holidays the flu caught up with her and turned into pneumonia. She spent eight days in Mills Memorial hospital and is now at home where she is recuperating nicely. Take it easy, Babe, the flu is bad enough but pneumonia is nothing to fool around with. All your friends and former neighbors are glad to hear that you are on the road to recovery will be looking forward to seeing you.

Sympathies of all the neighbors are extended this week to the LUCIER family. Sadness struck twice in the same week with the passing of their mother, MRS. LILLIAN LUCIER, and then their brother, ARTHUR LUCIER. Arthur passed away last week at Fort Miley hospital after a long illness and was buried just a week after his mother. Interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery with services conducted by W. C. Lasswell and Co.

Items of Interest

Congratulations are in order from all the friends and neighbors of MR. WILFORD HOBBS of Risel street. Mr. Hobbs has received an invitation from President Gordon Sproul of the University of California to attend a dinner on Feb. 1st. The ceremonies on this affair will be to honor certain employees who have attained many years of service. Mr. Hobbs has reached the thirty year mark and will be presented with an award in appreciation of his many years of service.

Finishing up the birthdays in the Brush family for January was ALLEN BRUSH of Winchester street. As is usual with Dads, Allen, who is a member of the Daly City fire department regulars, spent the day working. He was greeted on arrival home by a family dinner, presents and of course a birthday cake and ice cream which was insisted upon by his little daughter, KATHY. She just couldn't resist having a birthday without ice cream. A happy birthday is wished Allen from all the folks, too.

The moving vans were in order in the BOSKEY family last week. LYNNE, our ever pleasant and cheery hair stylist, packed up all the furniture and the family and moved to Flournoy street. Still in Daly City, which she says is the best place to live, she is now at home (when not beautifying all the ladies) and will be glad to welcome her many friends for that well-known cup of coffee. She makes good coffee too, as all her ladies can attest.

Sympathies of all the neighbors and friends of the DAY family are extended to them this week on the passing of their husband and father, MR. GEORGE DAY of Niantic avenue. Mr. Day was a friendly, helpful man and one who always seemed ready to lend a helping hand whenever anything needed to be fixed. He didn't even have to know you very well, just be your neighbor, and if you needed him he was there. He will be sorely missed by all who were privileged to know and love him.

MRS. MAY BAKER is really getting around. One week she goes out to dinner at one friend's house and lo and behold if she doesn't do the same thing the following week. This time it was MAMA LOMBARD of Los Banos avenue who was hostess to her friend May. These two ladies have been good friends for many years and are two of the neighbors whom it is always a pleasure to see. They are both good examples of how to keep young with the years as one is over eighty and the other over seventy. Maybe they can give us their secret for gracious living.

The Women's Council of the Grace Presbyterian church held their luncheon the other day with their newly installed president, MRS. LELLA FRAZIER, presiding. Their new program chairman for the year is MRS. ALFRED RUNNELLS and many plans for the coming year were presented to the ladies who enjoyed the afternoon.

MISS SHARON CASAD is a most unhappy lady. She has been plagued by frequent attacks of appendicitis lately and has been confined to bed and taking it easy. Telling a teen-ager to take it easy is just about the hardest things in the world. As long as they feel good one minute they think they're OK. Take it easy, Sharon, that old appendix really can cause a lot of trouble.

The census takers are out in full force and it is one way of seeing "people you haven't seen for years." One of the ladies taking the census was MRS. MARY HEDWALL. Seems her husband's family grew up in our town and in taking the census she ran into many old friends and acquaintances that she never knew were still living here. Well, neighbors, another week—another census. It really doesn't make any difference just what part of the year it is. The neighbors keep on the go and their ac-

Westlake Baptist To Launch Projects Totalling $300,000

The recent acquiring of three quarters of an acre of property on the corner of Elmwood and Southgate, Westlake, Daly City, has been a real source of stimulus of interest to the members and friends of the Westlake Community Baptist church. A 40' x 200' parking area with the entrance on Southgate will adequately take care of all the parking needs of the church. When completed the main sanctuary will seat between 400 and 600, with Sunday school facilities to accommodate well over 500.

The church is now going into its fourth year of operation, since its organization and inception in Westlake three and one half years ago.

When all units of the church are completed the appraisal value of the property and church buildings will total nearly $300,000. Plans and specifications for the first unit are almost completed and it is believed that ground breaking and excavation will be started within the near future, so that the first unit will be started soon.

A youth program to meet the needs of the entire community and of such nature young people of all faiths can participate will be instituted immediately upon completion of the first unit. The Rev. Roy Milam, organizer and pastor of the church from its inception, has instituted such youth programs before in other communities where they have proved to be very successful.

The church at present holds Sunday services in Abbey Chapel, Olivet Memorial Park, Hillside boulevard and F streets, Colma, until at such time the first unit is completed on its Westlake site. Any other information regarding the church may be had by calling the Rev. Milam at PL 5-7087.

Local Girl Pledged To Sorority At SJS

Alpha Omicron Pi, chapter at San Jose state college, announces the pledging of Miss Mary Alice Coverdale on Sunday, January 17. Members of the pledge class were presented Friday evening, January 22.

Miss Coverdale is a sophomore English major. She is the secretary of the Student Y and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Coverdale, who reside on Hanover street, Daly City.

The chapter has the highest sorority scholarship average on campus for the fall quarter.

Don't allow a driveway surface that needs patching to go unattended, advises the National Automobile Club. A patch in time reduces the cost of driveway maintenance very considerably as many car owners discover after it is too late.

Activities make interesting reading for all of us. Remember to write to the boys as they would rather read than eat. The phone is still PL 5-6482 and in this weather I'll sure to be home. I'll be hearing from you so until next week then—Bye Now.

Youth's Problems Is Topic At PTA Meet

Women of the Hillside PTA heard Superior Court Judge Louis B. Demattei speak on "Youth and Its Problems," at their last regular meeting held at the Colma school.

The 16 to 25-year-old group seems to be the toughest prison group today in the penal institutions, he said. The present tendency is the illegal use of narcotics. Crime today is far more serious than a few years back.

Six hundred more youngsters were committed to correctional institutions this past year than in other years, the judge pointed out. The thing that is causing serious results is the forming of gangs here in San Mateo county. This situation is new in this county and the officials are quite concerned over it.

"We are at the crossroads for illegal narcotics. Being so near a port where we have traffic coming in from different countries, California is the leader in the use of narcotics and the great percentage involved are our youngsters," he continued.

Seventy-five per cent of the adult penal institutions in the state have juvenile delinquent records, DeMattei explained.

Ray of Sunlight

The Colma and Daly City area has a "little ray of sunlight" in the fact that the 1953 record does not show much of an increase in the new cases admitted to courts. The serious threat, as mentioned before, is the forming of gangs, with youngsters as young as 12 years old doing real damage in the way of robbery, theft, rape and alcoholism. The alarming note also is the tremendous increase in girls showing sexual misbehavior. It is proving that the moral fibre of the home is breaking down.

Another disturbing factor mentioned was the ever increasing number of children from 10 to 13 years old who are non-disciplined and are a potential hazard to the welfare of the community.

Traffic Citations

Yet still another increase is the number of traffic citations that are coming into our county's courts by youngsters. Two years ago it was 60 cases a month and now it is 160 cases a month. And too many of the cases have parents who come in and shield their child and blame the officers.

A large number of children are being deserted and abandoned by their parents. The records show us there are 800 cases in the county.

DeMattei continued, "There is the danger of children who are good, having to grow up in this sort of an environment. We are paying $2400 a year for one person in a correction institution. Those who have to be in one of the institutions have a difficult time to lead a normal life afterward.

"Why is the challenge confronting us?"
Social conditions as well as the times are involved. The home today is not exercising enough supervision over their youngsters. There are too many broken homes. One out of every three are divorcees and so many of the divorcees are granted over the silliest reasons.
"There are homes that are together physically yet apart. The parents are both working and so much of the time it is not an economic necessity." The judge went on to say that too large a percentage of the parents are both working so as to have as much material wealth as their neighbors. These cases have been checked thoroughly. Too many times there is such conflict in the home also to be a cause.

The judge maintained that all children are born good.

Child Guidance

"We are having an increase in child guidance in our schools. Counselling is also done in the smaller grade schools, where we feel we can help some of the youngsters before they reach the age where the difficulty arises," the judge went on.

"The probation department has expanded. There are also the Family Social Service and the Youth Character Building programs that are doing a great work. The Scout troops are doing a fine job also. But the difficulty is that we cannot get enough help in these organizations.

"Too many parents refuse to admit their children's faults. They give their child false pretenses.

County Survey

"San Mateo county was chosen as one of the counties of the nation for a survey that is being made on the evaluation of family needs.

"There is yet another group. It is a 24-hour school that is being established, at the present time, for the maladjusted youngsters.

"The situation before is that the problem is not being met. The problem before is a challenge to all of us. We do lack manpower."

The judge suggests that each home strengthen its moral fiber. Parents should know where their youngsters are and also be aware of the company they are keeping. We should extend a helping hand to youngsters about us who are less fortunate than our own.

Following the end of the Judge's talk, Mrs. A. J. Gaggero asked mothers to offer their assistance in the coming hot-dog sales by calling PL 5-1661.

There is also going to be a Rag Drive, with Mrs. T. M. Mullen, PL 5-7263, as the chairman. The sale will be held February 16.

IT'S FOUR IN A ROW FOR LOCAL CAGERS

Blingums Take Two On Chin From Jeffs

Fresh from a thumping 54-38 victory over the faculty, Jefferson's varsity mastered a fairly good Burlingame team Tuesday, 60 to 50, to maintain their command in the Peninsula Athletic league race with a 4-0 mark.

The little Indians brought Jefferson some sort of record as they came from behind in the fourth quarter to top the Panther 30s, 44 to 37. The win likewise placed them in first place in the league standings for their division with a 4-0 standing.

As far as the records show, this is the first time both teams have led their leagues this late in the season.

Led All The Way

The local varsity was never in trouble, holding a 30-15 half-time advantage, and moving away, 47 to 25, at the third quarter's close.

Having tromped over four straight league opponents, Coach Mike Orlich's varsity and Tony Giammona's lights eye their fifth victories tonight (Friday) as they take on Capuchino here.

The contest will begin at 7:15 p.m. in the Jefferson High school gym, with the 30s game first on tap.

The Blingums rallied in the fourth quarter for a 25-point spurt, but the regulars returned to the floor for the Jeffs to put down the scoring fling.

With a secure margin in the third quarter, Coach Mike Orlich hustled in a total of eight subs from the bench.

Don Delbon, Jefferson's potshot forward, was "held" to 16 points Tuesday but he didn't play a full game.

Madden Repeats

Center John Madden, taking up where he left off in last week's league play, accounted for 14 of the Jeff markers. In early season play, Madden rarely scored in the two-figure column. Tuesday's efforts give him a total of 28 points in the last two league contests.

Scoring on the Jeff varsity was well distributed all the way down the line, with Forward Ray Rosa potting 12, Guard Tom Costello hitting 11 and Guard Wally Honeywell netting 7.

None of the reserves could muster a single tally for the Jefferson cause.

Out of the Bag

Coach Tony Giammona of the 30s had cause for rejoicing as his "students" pulled one out of the bag to win by a seven-point margin.

The Daly City 30s were never ahead in the game until the final quarter, when Guard Rich Watson and Forward Al Lagomarsino opened a scoring attack that gave the local lights a total of 14 points in that frame.

At the wind-up of the initial quarter it was tied at 10 all. Half-time showed the little Panthers out in front, 21 to 19, and the Burlingame outfit held a narrow, 31 to 30, margin at the end of the third quarter.

Watso Gets 15

Watson was high for the Jeffs with 15 points on seven field goals, one free throw, while Lagomarsino pushed through four field goals and a couple charity tosses to come out with 10 for the evening. Guard Rich Rodriguez banged home 8 tallies for the winners, as did Forward Bill Storch.

Matzek explained that the local legion post and the community are involved four ways in the second annual circus which will be held in San Mateo, March 20 and 21.

This post's share of the funds will be used for the post's child welfare, veterans rehabilitation and hospital and patient funds, the commander said.

Oldsters Make Game Of It For Three Quarters

Despite the fact that the "heavy money" was riding with the faculty club, Jefferson High school's varsity basketball team clobbered their elders Friday to the tune of 54 to 38, in the annual classic held in the Jefferson gym.

The championship-bound high schoolers had a game on their hands for the first three quarters, but endurance showed in the final period as the varsity poured through enough points to give them a substantial margin of victory.

At the end of the first quarter the bachelor of arts aggregation held an 18-12 edge over the varsity.

They hung grimly onto the lead as late as the third period, when they were out in front, 30 to 26.

Forward Don Delbon paced the varsity with 21 points. Tony Giammona led the oldsters with 11, while Byron Van Alstine hit for 10.

Coaching the faculty five were John Mongan and Lou Reese.

Jeff 20s basketball stars of the past season, George Miller and Dick Kalinin, tutored the varsity to their win.

The Jayvees topped the 30s, 41 to 39, in an overtime.

Blanchard Tanks 21 As Mateans Snitch Win From Stockton

The San Mateo Junior College quintet will entertain the fast moving Panther squad from Sacramento to Junior College this Friday evening in the Baldwin gym. San Mateo will be up against one of the leading teams of the Big Seven conference, and another packed gym is expected, as all of the San Mateo games seem close and exciting.

San Mateo's latest hair-raising tilt was with Stockton college, the Mateans winning out 84-82 in the last second, when Doug Taylor, ex-Sequoia Union High School guard, sank the winning basket. San Mateo had been behind as much as 19 points in the game, but scored 33 points in the last ten minutes to win. Larry Blanchard, ex-Jefferson flash, scored 14 points in that hectic finish, and had a total for the evening of 21.

SFS Gators Swing Into Action Tonight After Long Layoff

San Francisco State's basketball team, swinging into action after two weeks of idleness, meets YMI tonight at 8:15 on the Lake Merced campus. The S. F. State jaycees meet the Marine Corps Supply depot in a 6:15 preliminary.

The Gators lead the Far Western Conference with a 4-0 record after having upset Sacramento State in the last league action.

Coach Dan Farmer will start center Al Desbin, the team's leading scorer with 219 points in 15 games, forwards Glyden Mayfield (167 points) and Henry Fort (92) and guards John Burton (106) and Bob Johnson (44).

Desin was married on January 24 and will return from his honeymoon for the game.

Outstanding YMI cagers are George Walker and Mike O'Neill, former California stars, and guard Bob Liebe. Liebe was Farmer's regular center and leading scorer at State until ruled ineligible by the transfer rule.

The YMI team won the Pacific Association AAU championship last year.

WALTER MAILS WILL VISIT HERE TOMORROW

Walter Mails, baseball veteran and San Francisco Seals publicist with a record of experience in both fields longer than your arm, will visit Daly City tomorrow (Saturday) at 12:30 to talk baseball before the OLPH Suds baseball team.

Walt Gillies, manager of the local team for boys in the 14-year-old group, said Mails will appear at the church if weather is bad, or at Marchbanks park, weather permitting.

Mails, who was recently rehired to boost the starling Seals in the promotion department, played professional ball for 17 years.

A south-paw chucker, his first win was with Seattle in the now defunct Northwestern league, taking the measure of Tacoma.

From 1915 to '17 he was with Brooklyn of the National league, then moved back to Seattle in the PCL from 1920 to 22, after serving a stint in the Army during the war.

Years 1923-'24 found him with Cleveland of the American circuit, and from there he was west-bound, where he did mound duty for Oakland in 1925-'26. From 1927 to 1930 he campaigned with St. Louis, in '31 he switched to Portland, the following year he went with Chattanooga of the Southeastern association, and wound up his pro career with Kansas City of the American association in 1933.

Since that time he has worked actively in public relations and has established himself as a figure of renown in the sports world.
